We are happy to offer a new way to study with the Jin Shin Jyutsu faculty. In 2019, Instructors for the Mary Burmeister JSJ Institute will begin offering 2 hour online study groups. The participating instructors will offer interesting topics to cover with the Jin Shin Jyutsu community. The cost of the live study groups will be $49 and you may watch its replay as many times as you wish, for 6 months.

The Art of Skillful Touch

Please join our fifth study group Webinar with Jill Pasquinelli on July 6, 2019 at 3PM East coast Time.

This webinar is all about Hands-On, the quality of touch, and the practical application of giving a session that encompasses Spirit, Mind, and Body.

Two necessary skills required to be a skillful practitioner are Presence and Listening. Awareness requires that we listen, to listen we need to cultivate a relationship with silence.

Our quality of Touch and how we administer a Hands-On session illustrates what we have truly embodied, how we have absorbed and integrated all the aspects of our study of Jin Shin Jyutsu, both in our understanding of what we’ve learned and in our own experiences with Hands-On and self-help.

We’ll explore how to create ease and skill in our practice, both for our clients and ourselves. There are many facets to the hands-on aspect of Jin Shin Jyutsu which we’ll discuss, practice, and I’ll also be using demonstration.

“How do you touch the body, Mary?” to which she replied, “you hold the body lovingly.”

JSJ INTENSIVES

One of the most powerful ways of experiencing the benefits of JSJ is to receive 2 sessions a day for 5 days or more. In terms of the harmonizing effect on the body, 10 sessions can be understood as the difference between dusting and vacuuming. In terms of numerology the 9th session ends a cycle and the 10th moves the body forward to the next cycle of harmonizing.

At the Scottsdale Office you can book a 9am & 3pm, or 10am & 4pm set of sessions each day. Occasionally people opt for 1 session a day for 10 days or longer. It may also be possible to receive weekend sessions at the office, or your accommodation. Whatever your requirements we will do our best to work with you. Please Inquire.
